- 3. All detachments and regiments are then divided into operfills units, battalions, etc. All units operate on the self-supply basis; thus their movements are unpredictable. Villages are raided for goods and supplies. Whenever National troops attack them, these Communists retreat and concentrate in the Shih-wan-ta-shan area. (108..., 22...).
- 9. General Fang has organized all the Communists in Hongkong. Under the "protection" of the British colony, he has had several secret meetings with Ts'ai T'ing-kai (), head of the Democratic Promotion Party, and Li Chang-ta () head of the Peoples League and has contacted members of all other democratic societies. He has made two secret trips to Macao, to expand Red operations in the area. Recently the Democratic League has come out openly in Macao and is spreading anti-Nationalists propaganda in the city.
